Thanks for asking Bob. It is my understanding that the person at Metro Y who is managing this project went on vacation after the bids were received and may not be returning until tomorrow. Two bids were submitted. The local Board is scheduled to be briefed on the status of the project this Wednesday. I'll advocate for improved bidder communication asap. I have not heard anything substantive.

Team - Has the YMCA provided any feedback on the budgets and bids? My contractor was asked to provide a detailed breakdown which is concerning given the lump sum bid nature of the process. He is happy to assist in Value Engineered or scope reductions if necessary, but would want to know where he stands in the bid process. Any advice you can provide is appreciated.
